Diversion of Licensed Ferry Service between North Point and Kwun Tong via Kai Tak Runway Park Pier and Termination of Kaito Service between Kwun Tong and Kai Tak Runway Park Pier

Members of the public are advised that the following service adjustments of the licensed ferry service between North Point and Kwun Tong will be implemented with effect from 3 December 2016 (Saturday):

- (1) two additional sailings between North Point and Kwun Tong via Kai Tak Runway Park Pier will be provided on Mondays to Fridays (except public holidays). The existing schedule of service, which operates for every 30 minutes between North Point and Kwun Tong, will remain unchanged;
- (2) the existing schedule of service on Saturdays (except public holidays) before 9 a.m., which operates for every 30 minutes, will remain unchanged, and an additional special sailing both from North Point or Kwun Tong will call at Kai Tak Runway Park Pier; and
- (3) all sailings between North Point and Kwun Tong after 9 a.m. will call at Kai Tak Runway Park Pier on Saturdays (except public holidays) and on Sundays and public holidays, the frequency will be adjusted to an hour. On Sundays and public holidays, the first sailing from Kwun Tong will be extended to 7:30 a.m., the last sailing from North Point will be advanced to 7 p.m., while the last sailing from Kwun Tong will be advanced to 7:30 p.m.

The full adjusted timetable is at Annex. The service adjustments will not affect the existing fares of the ferry service.

With effect from 3 December 2016 (Saturday), the operation of the existing kaito service between Kwun Tong and Kai Tak will be terminated. As this kaito service operates only on Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays, the last date of the kaito service will fall on 27 November 2016 (Sun).

The concerned ferry operators will put up notices at the concerned piers to inform passengers of the above arrangements.
