Kai Tak Cruise Terminal Celebrates Arrival of Two Millionth Cruise Passenger
During World Dream's Turn Call

(23 September 2018, Hong Kong) – The Kai Tak Cruise Terminal, operated by Worldwide Cruise Terminals (“WCT”) celebrated the arrival of its two millionth cruise ship passenger today, during the World Dream’s turn call.

The event occurred on the eve of Hong Kong’s Mid-Autumn Festival, a general holiday and also one of the most important festivals of the year. Jeff Bent, managing director of Worldwide Cruise Terminals said, “We are delighted to celebrate this milestone alongside the wonderful Mid-Autumn Festival where families traditionally reunite for the harvest, just as families are brought together on a cruise.

“It was only 15 months ago that we welcomed our one millionth cruise passenger; the arrival of our two millionth cruise passenger today is further validation of the Kai Tak Cruise Terminal’s success since its inception in 2013.” Bent added.

He continued, “We have had multiple reasons to celebrate this year, as our 2 millionth passenger mark was preceded by a number of local and international awards. Just last month, we were on stage to receive the Asia Cruise Leaders Network’s “Asia Best Cruise Home Port 2018” award at the Asia Cruise Forum in Jeju, Korea. We were also recently named Cruise Critic “Cruisers’ Choice - Top 5 Asia Cruise Destination”, based on the number of positive consumer reviews left on their website.”
